

Last minute tasting! I like to be spontaneous sometimes!

I hope you can come and taste wine from the Piemonte region of Italy!

I found these wines that are so outstanding...I really want to share with you before they are sold out!!

Date: Tomorrow...Friday, October 23rd.

Time: 4-7 pm

Price ONLY: $17. Three great wines!!!

Here are the wines:

2006 Podere Ruggeri Corsini Barbera d'Alba Superiore "Armujan" $26.

Single Vineyard, Old Vine Barbera. This wine is amazing...I could smell this wine all night long it is truly beautiful and I can't wait for you to taste!

2004 Podere Ruggeri Corsini Barolo $44.50

Gorgeous aromas of blackberry, raspberry and strawberry. Full-bodied, with a wonderful core of ripe yet fresh fruit. Long and silky. Ultrarefined. Best after 2011. 450 cases made. Suggested retail $60. - 91 Points Wine Spectator

2004 Fontanabianca Barbaresco "Sori Burdin" $63.

"I remember visiting Fontanabianca and proprietor Aldo Pola as his 2004 Barbarescos were fermenting right after the harvest. The perfumes emanating from the winery were heavenly. Pola's 2004 Barbaresco Sori Burdin has turned out beautifully. It is a big, authoritative Barbaresco loaded with super-ripe red fruit, macerated cherries, menthol, minerals, flowers and spices. Endowed with notable weight and a layered texture, it offers outstanding concentration and fine, well-integrated tannins. This is a terrific effort from Fontanabianca. Anticipated maturity: 2009-2019." 92 Points Robert Parker
