90 + Pointer!

2020 Poliziano Rosso de Montepulcino Italy $16

A rich, smooth style, delivering cherry, plum, iron and tobacco aromas and flavors. Balanced, with a solid line of tannins providing support. Sangiovese and Merlot. Drink now through 2025. 90 Points Wine Spectator

2019 Delas Freres Cotes du Rhone France $15

Fresh and inviting, with more fruit and depth than many of its peers. Offers a plum and cherry puree profile, laced with floral and red tea accents on the finish. Drink now through 2022. 90 Points Wine Spectator

2019 Bodegas San Valero Plano Alto Garnacha & Carinena Spain $12

The 2019 'Plano Alto' is fresh and inviting, as it opens to aromatics of black raspberries, wild cherries, pomegranate, sweet spices and fresh flowers which all jump from the glass. On the palate this is vibrant with fresh red berries, florals and spices. This is accessible today, but should continue to develop nicely over the next 2-3 years. 93 Points James Suckling

2019 Robert Hall Artisan Collection Paso Robles CA. $15

There is a strong aroma of dark woods like mahogany on the nose of this bottle as well as a fresher, slightly tart strawberry tone. Dried mushroom and forest duff flavors meet with ripe strawberry and cracked pepper on the palate. 90 Points Wine Enthusiast

Subsoil Cabernet Sauvignon Horse Heaven Hills AVA WA $17

The Subsoil label Cabernet Sauvignon from Prosser, Washington's Mercer Estates offers rich aromas of ripe fig with prominent clove spice, dried mint, violet and herbes de Provence. On the palate, juicy flavors of black cherry and black raspberry show nice acidity and balanced by notes of, cocoa powder, peppery spice and a finish that shows black licorice and an elegant earthy minerality. AVA: Horse Heaven Hills, Washington JUDGES SCORE: 91 Points

2019 Ensedune Coteaux D'Enserune Malbec France $13

The particularly warm, dry climate of Coteaux d'Enserune creates a unique and meticulous harvest of grapes for Ensédune Malbec. This wine balances fruity and floral notes. Cherry and raspberry initially touch the nose, followed by notes of licorice and peony to create a vibrant, bright finish. Pair with a decadent red meat to compliment the rustic, dryness of Ensédune Malbec. 90 Points DR
