

Bing! Bang! Boom! July is here! Let summer begin! I feel change coming and I am looking forward to blue skies. I'm also feeling the bite of the vogue word, "economy," and like us all, sick of it!! Don't like it! Hopefully things will get better soon...

In the mean time I have plenty for great wine to sip that will make the afternoon cocktail hour pleasant, if not the most exciting part of the day! So, don't take shopping at Santiam Wine Company out of your weekly routine make it your routine! I hope you make many great memories this summer and have a very safe and sane 4th of July!

We look forward to seeing you at our Friday night wine tastings!

Cheers! Debbie

2009 Owen Roe O'Reilly's Pinot Noir Oregon: $16.50

The O'Reilly's 2009 Pinot noir opens with a lovely nose of dried lavender, and candied red fruit, with a hint of earth and pine. Bright red cherries fuse with jammy raspberry notes carrying through to the soft finish.

2007 La Solana "Pago Florentino" Tinto Spain: $20

100% Tempranillo sourced from a single 72 hectare estate. The wine was barrel-fermented and then aged for 12 months in equal parts French and American oak, 50% new. Deep crimson-colored, it reveals an enticing perfume of cedar, pencil lead, leather, chocolate, and black cherry. On the palate it has loads of ripe fruit, a smooth texture, succulent flavors, and a 40-second finish. Drink this tasty effort over the next six years. 90 Points Robert Parker.

2009 Domaine Dupeuble Beaujolais, France: $16.

A perfect red wine for the summer time, with a slight chill on the bottle and enjoy with food or on the deck in the warm summer afternoon! Importer Kermit Lynch had this to say; "Damien Dupeuble recently telephoned, excited because this new Beaujolais that we blended together had just won a gold medal at the annual tasting competition in the Beaujolais region. Deservedly so, if I do say so myself, because it is nothing but pure drinking pleasure. The aromatics and silkiness of the fruit are remarkable. I'll be amazed if you are not back for more once you've tasted it."

2007 Domaine Clavel Cotes Du Rhone, France $10.50

A fun blend of Grenache, Syrah, Cinsault and Carignon. Deep, rich nose, black cherry. Ripe and good concentration. Pure fruit and good balance. Rich, Good smooth acidity. Black fruits, black cherry. Nice Wine!

2008 La Croix Belle Syrah Vin De Pays FR. $11.

100 % Syrah incredible! A luscious red, with lip-smacking flavors of red cherry, plum and spice, followed by a fresh, juicy finish. There's nice balance to the fruit and acidity. Drink now through 2013. 89 Points Wine Spectator

2008 Apothic Red Blend California: $11.

A captivating blend of three distinct grapes, with the dark fruit flavors of Syrah, brambly spice of Zinfandel, and smooth elegance of Merlot. Apothic Red reveals intense fruit aromas and flavors of blackberry and dark cherry layered with hints of mocha, chocolate and brown spice. The plush, velvety mouthfeel and smooth finish round out this intriguing, full-bodied red blend

2008 La Quercia Montepulciano D'Abruzzo Italy: $10

“This Montepulciano is a great example of what happens when you match low-yield winemaking expertise with a prolific growing zone, and constantly cut, cut, cut back the vines. Made by winemaker Antonio Lamona, the result is one of the best quality, most expressive and balanced Montepulcianos around. This wine is also 100% organic, and delivers as a wine that takes no shortcuts.” Small Vineyards

2007 Gordon Brothers Kamiak Rock Lake Red WA. $12.

The 2007 Kamiak Red is a harmonious blend of 4 different grapes. Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Malbec & Syrah. With these players all contributing to a layered and succulent wine. Very Tasty!

2008 K Vintners Fruit Bomb Red Blend, Walla Walla: $10.

A blend of 34% Syrah, 31% Merlot, 22% Cabernet and the rest Malbec & Cab. Franc. Sweet black cherries and savory Blackberries tie together with earthy elements and a perfect touch of French vanilla and oak. Spice and darker elements round out and add depth to the fresh fruity mouth feel. This is a wine to enjoy anytime, anywhere! The fun label was designed by an ex-Marvel Comic designer. Think 4th of July!
